

Guidelines and Instructions for Protocol Screening Process

If your research or project meets the criteria for one of the categories of exemption, you can submit an application for Determination of Exemption.

Prior to initiating the application form, download and review the pdf version to understand the content needed to complete the electronic application. Most all of the needed information can be directly inserted into the electronic form however, you can also attach additional documents as needed.

Link to the Determination of Exemption application form

<https://tinyurl.com/SMU-RPS-Exempt-Application>